THE STATE FAIR.

THE TOURNAMENT THE FEATURE OF THE MORNING-RACES IN THE AFTERNOON-THE FAIR-RECEIPTS ON THURSDAY LAST AND SAME DAY YEAR BEFORE-NON-AP-PEARANCE OF THE COLORED MILITARY.

The weather was cool but very bright vesterday. Many who did not dare to venture forth to the grounds on Thursday seized this last opportunity of seeing the exhibition, and the attendance was quite equal, if not larger, than on the same day of the week last year.

But for all that the receipts were probably not more than six or eight hundred dol- two in three.

The exhibits were seen yesterday to great advantage, as the removal of articles, which Wales first; Tramp second; Ashland beretofore has robbed the last day of much third; Captain King fourth, and Starlight attractiveness, was very properly not allow- fifth. ed to commence until late in the evening. The blue premium ribbons were floating from all articles which had found favor in the sight of the judges of award. There were also, of course, many exhibitors who looked blue. Some of them poured into reportorial ears most plaintive stories of exhibits had been altogether overlooked. and General Johnston. The track, except in a few places, was in good condition, and a fine trot was anticipated. The horses having been brought to the stand by the bugle-call, lots were cast, and the choice of positions fell to General Love, Tramp next, and Key West on the outside. After several attempts a good start was effected; General Love got the lead, followed by Key West and Tramp. Tramp dashed off and fairly astonished everybody by his handsome work. The remarkable resemblance to Toodles was recognized at a glance, and on all sides were heard expressions of surprise at Tramp's work, when his apfront of Ford's Hotel on Monday night, pearance was taken into consideration, and it was generally conceded that he had been very titly named.

Tramp gradually gained on the leaders, until finally, near the end of the half mile, they were overtaken and passed. MISSION WORK.

Annual Meeting of the Christian Society.

ADDRESS FROM REV. L. A. CUTLER AND A FINE PAPER FROM COLONEL JOHN B. CARY-REPORTS RECEIVED AND REFER-RED-OTHER BUSINESS-ORDER OF BUSI-

The Virginia Christian Missionary Society, organized in November, 1875, "for the spread of the Gospel within the limits of the State," met in annual session last night at the Seventh-Street Christian church, the president, L. A. Cutler, in the chair. The exercises were opened by sing-ing the hymn commencing, "I love thy pursue the same line of business. kingdom, Lord." After which Rev. F. D. Power read a lesson from the Scriptures and led in probably the oldest resident. prayer. THE SOCIETY is composed of life-directors, life-members, annual members, and associate members. 'Any member of the Church of Christ, or representative of any church or any religious society connected with any church, may become a life-director by the payment of $100 in five annual instalments, a lifemember by the payment of $50 in five equal annual instalments, or an annual member fault of surety. by the payment of $5." Associate members pay $5, but have not the right to vote.

The preachers present were Rev. F. D. Power, Washington, D. C.; Rev. Calvin S. Blackwell, Norfolk, Va.; Rev. L. A. Cutler, Louisa Courthouse. Va.; Rev. C. S. Lucas, Lynchburg, Va.; Rev. Professor Wade Shelburne, Big Lick, Va.; Rev. Dr. J. W. which occasion she appeared in "The Celt-Williams, Entield, Va.; Rev. J. A. Dearborn, Richmond, Va.; Rev. J. Z. Tyler, tained, and Miss D'Este and her company pastor of Seventh-Street Christian church; Rev. Emmett Waldrop, Ashland, Va.

There were present also a great many lay day. To-night, for the farewell perform- BOLIC MOUTH-WASH. Fifty cents a bottle. members, including quite a number not ance, "The Two Orphans" will be preresidents of Richmond. The President delivered

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS, congratulating the Society upon the good it has done. He said that they were stronger to-day in numbers and in zeal and in moral power than at any time since the organization. His earnest prayer was that every church in the State should be represented in the next annual meeting. He answered the objection that had been by some good brethren urged against the Society-that the churches should not delegate their powers Henderson, Ky. in this matter—and maintained that the successful propagation of the gospel in Virginia required the churches to use some such instrumentality as this. The grand aim is to plant churches in the destitute and important centres of Virginia; not only in cities, but in the rural districts. Through the The premium of $20 for best two-year-old and efforts of the Society mission churches have h re. been established and maintained in Lynchburg and Norfolk. Colonel John B. Cary read the ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD of Managers. The report gave an encouraging account of the operations of the Society in a field not occupied by any other agency of the Church in the State. It was an unusually fine plea on behalf of missions, and a kindly and judicious defence of the method adopted by this Society to that end. The report announced the death of Theodore M. Roberts, of Charlotte, to whom the Society is indebted for a handsome bequest ($4.000), and recommended that a committee be appointed to prepare suitable resolutions. The report was accepted and ordered to be referred to appropriate committees. J. L. Maury, Esq., presented his annual report, showing a balance of $38.85. Brethren present not connected with the Society were, on motion of Rev. J. Z. Tyler, invited to participate in the deliberations.

An opportunity was now given for old members to renew their subscriptions and for new ones to enter the Society. The treasury was thus replenished to a considerable extent. Those subscribing, and so wishing, were allowed to designate where it should be spent. THE PRESIDENT read the following programme for to-day: 10 A. M. 1. Annual report of evangelist, C. S. Lucas. 2. General discussion of the report.

3. Address, at 11 A. M., by C. S. Blackwell. 4. General discussion till adjournment. 4 P. M. 1. Address by F. D. Power.

2. General discussion.

7:45 P. M. 1. Sermon by I. J. Spencer. 2. Unfinished business. On motion of Rev. J. Z. Tyler the Convention adjourned. The congregation was dismissed after benediction by the president.
